

West Custer County Library District Local History Collection
Oral History Collection

---

LP2009.013.086

Hartbauer, Arno

1990

Interviewed by Arlie Riggs

Arno and Mrs. Hartbauer are interviewed by Arlie Riggs in 1990, with an introduction by Irene Francis. The interview appears to be a continuation from a previous interview. Side 2 is a continuation of the interview for 1/2 of the tape. They talk about the drought of 1902, and the big flood of 1911.

00:00    Ranching, animal care, snow

1:00     moved into town 1969, his father had hiccups for 21 days straight, then leukemia, then died

3:15     sold the ranch 1969

6:00     about the kids

13:00    1940, first in the valley to have a milking machine

20:00    mother part Indian

24:15    John bought Yvonne a .38 for rattlesnakes

28:00    animal care, vaccinating

33:15    putting the best horse on the wagon tongue

35:00    pine needles in the grass hay will kill calves

38:30    Arno said you can't buy lamb chops in America

40:30    1911 flood, Knuth pond, bridge Hwy 69 north

42:15    snow amounts, 1942 Spring and Grape Creeks ran together by Elton Camper's

45:00    end